CITI GTS WINS VIETNAM BANK TRADE MANDATE

HANOI - Citi's Bank Services Group, a division of Global Transaction Services (GTS), has been appointed trade finance bank for Vietnam Technological and Commercial Joint-Stock Bank (Techcombank). Under the mandate, Citi now provides an array of trade finance solutions to Techcombank, which are offered to its local exporter and importer clients.

For Techcombank, Citi will make trade advances for the purpose of providing trade financing to one or more local exporters and importers, enhancing their funding options. Leveraging Citi's relationships with multinational organizations and export credit agencies, the deal will also provide additional solutions to Techcombank's increasing funding demands and growing clientele.

Additionally, through its alliance with Citi, Techcombank will provide its import clients in Vietnam with flexible funding and cross-border services from major export markets including Australia, China, India, Korea, Malaysia and Russia.

Nguyen Duc Vinh, CEO of Techcombank, said: "Citi has been a long-term and important partner to us. We highly appreciate the collaboration with Citi in all banking business areas, especially across international banking and trade financing. We are confident that such cooperation will contribute significantly to Techcombank's effort to become the leading bank in Vietnam."

Brett Krause, Managing Director, Citi Country Officer for Vietnam, said, "This deal demonstrates Citi's ability to leverage multinational organization and export credit agency relationships to provide funding for local banks in Vietnam. In winning this key mandate, Citi has further solidified its standing as the leading provider of trade financing solutions to banks in Vietnam which are looking to support clients as they expand their business regionally and globally."

Munir Nanji, Managing Director, Region Head of Bank Services Group, Asia Pacific, Citi, said: "Vietnam's corporate space continues to evolve and its banking sector has proactively taken steps to ensure that clients' demands are met. Techcombank has made a major move in realizing its goals and given Citi a phenomenal endorsement in Vietnam, a market where we see great potential to partner with leading financial institutions."

Global Transaction Services, a division of Citigroup's Institutional Clients Group, offers integrated cash management, trade, and securities and fund services to multinational corporations, financial institutions and public sector organizations around the world. With a network that spans more than 100 countries, Citigroup's Global Transaction Services supports over 65,000 clients. As of the first quarter of 2010, it held on average $319 billion in liability balances and $11.8 trillion in assets under custody.
